Welcome to RedteaGO!

With our API, you can fully access our eSIM packages and provide your users with the best eSIM data solutions.

Here is a Checklist for you before starting:
1. The API address:
- RedteaGO App: https://rousseau.redtea.dev/api/v1/query/areaPackages
- RedteaGO Web: https://rousseau.redtea.dev/api/v2/query/areaPackages
2. Please find the attachment to check API documentation.
3. Registered an account in Partnership Platform: https://partner.redteago.com/login

Now, you can retrieve the referral link for each eSIM plan with the following steps:

1. Access your Referral URL and Referral Code in your Partnership Platform - > Profile.

2. Using the Europe 36 Countries plan as an example, you can use this URL:
https://esim.redteago.com/mealdetail/?shortCode=314hcvkf&areaId=69

Where the shortCode is the channel ID in referral URL: 314hcvkf, and the areaId is the areaId found within each package in the API interface (https://rousseau.redtea.dev/api/v1/query/areaPackages).

3. Customers who have used the Referral Code will also be associated with your account, and the orders they place will count towards commission. (Redeeming Promo Code: After logging in RedteaGO Web, customers can easily redeem their promo code by: Clicking "My Account" - > Click on "Redeem Promo Code" - > Enter the code)

Can the Referral Code be customized?

Absolutely! We're happy to create a customized coupon code for you. It must begin with a letter and can be a combination of letters or letters with numbers, but non-8 characters in length. If you need a customized code, please send us your partnership account and the code you'd like to use via email at service@redteago.com

Commission Structure and Payment Process

You'll earn a 10% commission on the total order amount paid by your referred users. This applies when their payment is made within 90 days of registration, and includes payments made through Apple Pay, Credit/Debit Card, PayPal, and Alipay.

Commissions are calculated monthly. Payments will be made to you when your total commission reaches $50 or more. If your accumulated commission is less than $50, payment will be deferred until it reaches or exceeds $50.

Our payment method is through PayPal invoice. To receive your payment, simply initiate the payment request to our PayPal account: globalpay_sg@redteamobile.com through PayPal.
